TRANSFER TIPS

Students are strongly encouraged to take their required English and math courses as early as possible with at least one English course and math completed by the end of fall.

To be competitive for admission to UCLA, students should focus on completing the general UC transfer requirements and major preparation first.

IGETC is only required for School of Nursing and School of Theater, Film and Television.

UCLA does not pre-evaluate course transferability prior to submission of an application.

Double check your coursework on www.assist.org. Students may be deficient units because a course was not transferable, or did not receive credit due to limitations, duplications or other restrictions.

Students who have completed courses outside the California Community College system should compare those course descriptions with courses in the UCLA General Catalog (<http://catalog.registrar.ucla.edu>).

Courses completed in the summer immediately prior to transfer cannot be used to fulfill the minimum unit requirement.

MAJOR PREP TIPS

Students MUST complete their major preparation requirements by the end of spring prior to transfer.

Students MUST take the correct calculus course sequence for their major. Visit www.assist.org to determine the required calculus course or sequence that fulfills major preparation requirements.

Students applying to a highly selective major should complete the majority of their major prep as early as possible.

The most competitive applicants for Business Economics, Economics, and Psychology will have completed all major prep by the end of fall prior to transfer.

APPLICATION TIPS

Report courses exactly as they appear on your transcript, including nontransferable courses and withdrawals. You must report all courses completed at any post-secondary institution. You may not omit any courses or previous institutions from your UC application.

Provide an accurate email address on your UC application and check that account regularly. You may receive important information via email throughout the admission review process.

List the language of instruction at your high school.

Provide your fall grades and planned spring coursework in January through the Transfer Academic Update (TAU) by January 31st. We cannot review your application if you have not submitted your TAU.

Explain any gaps in education.

Withdrawals, incomplete grades, and academic renewals are not necessarily viewed negatively. Take time to address these in your application so that we have a clear understanding of your academic progress.

You can import information directly into the UC Application from the UC Transfer Admission Planner (UC TAP).

APPLYING TO UCLA

We are looking for intellectual curiosity and your interest in personal development in your application. UCLA is a dynamic place due to our creative, ambitious, and diverse student body. We anticipate the applicants we admit will contribute to the intellectual vitality, cultural life, and diversity of UCLA.

deciding ON A MAJOR

If you think your undergraduate major will determine your future career, think again! Most undergraduate majors are broad and theoretical, providing you with marketable skills in critical thinking, writing, problem solving, and communication that are valued by employers in every field.

DO YOU NEED A SPECIFIC MAJOR FOR YOUR CAREER OR GRAD SCHOOL?

UCLA David Geffen School of Medicine

Any major is appropriate for medical school preparation. UCLA students who have gone on to medical school have majored in a wide variety of areas, including Anthropology, Business, Communication, Music, Political Science, and Religion.

Developing Leaders Engaged in Social Change

The world needs agents of social change whose passion to improve people’s lives is matched by the knowledge and skills to deliver results. UCLA’s Luskin School of Public Affairs will help cultivate this next generation of civic-minded leaders with a new undergraduate degree, which launched in the fall of 2018.

The B.A. in Public Affairs offers an in-depth and engaged educational experience with a clear public service ethos. The undergraduate major is centered around a multidisciplinary foundation in the social sciences, with an applied emphasis on knowledge and methods for improving society.

The major includes a required experiential learning capstone in the senior year, connecting the dots between theory and action. This capstone combines a multi-quarter internship in a community or government organization with a seminar series in which students develop a project. Most of these capstone projects will take place in the greater Los Angeles area, providing an amazing opportunity for undergraduates to contribute to our global city in a sustained and substantial way.
